Wrt to the broken mirrors... we may need to consult with our legal side, what's the best recourse....so, do allow us some time to sort this out.

Salaam everyone

Annual Haul

This depends if the family wants to have it at Gedung Kuning in 2013 and subsequent years. If we decide to have the 2013 haul there, we will coordinate with Zul & Mas. As mentioned earlier, we are just exploring this option.

Just to share with you, Tepak Sireh had promised to give us discount on our haul meal (for about 100 persons). However, we were then told to pay the total amount without discount when we had our haul some years back. It's not that we couldn't pay for the meal but the promise wasn't honoured. We felt that if Tepak Sireh didn't want to give us discount, then say so; don't make promises and not honour it. We can always have the haul elsewhere but we felt for sentimental value and for keberkatan, we should have it in our old home.

Dessert Recipe

Abang Khir will reply to this as it's his recipe.

Side issue about our broken mirrors

As mentioned by Khir during our discusson, the family wouldn't donate broken things and of course MHC wouldn't have accepted them if they were broken right? Julina, we hope you can settle this matter with Akbar and update us.

Thanks!

Best regards,

Hidayah

Just a couple of additional points...

- You've requested if the family's annual "haul" be held at GK. We have no objections to this, as long as Zul/Mas has no objections. I will leave it between Zul/Mas and your family to coordinate.
- Khir offered an interesting dessert recipe (a sweet potato based custard that can be included in the menu... sounds interesting.... Just wondering if the offer still open, since you did not mention it in the list below..

Thanks
