Dear Madam Faizah Jamal

We were very disappointed to receive an email from an NMP and cced to Hidayah and Khir Johari with regards to the above matter. Naturally for Hidayah, it will be used as an ammunition to email to all above names to discredit Mamanda. We have stopped all communication with Hidayah and she now have you an MP as a spokes person. We do not know what is your objective and again it was used as another attack by Hidayah towards Mamanda. May we know why you are using your position as an MP to throw weight on us. Why not help small business like us to grow.

Are you aware on how tough and difficult is it now for companies to survive in this challenging economic environment? I just had a conversation with Minister of State, Ministry of Trade and Industry Mr Teo Ser Luck at SMCCI yesterday on the challenges Singapore companies are facing.

Your remark, "That way you would be intellectually honest and credible...." Why? Are we really that stupid, dishonest and not credible?

As an MP you are suppose to listen to both sides of the story and help to overcome any disputes or assist where ever possible. Have you listen to our side of the story? Do you know how many families are dependent on Mamanda? Yellow Ribbon, Mendaki Sense, PPIS (to name a few) is Mamanda supporting? By discrediting us and not supporting us, we will have more families depending on CDCs handouts.

Honestly we do not have the muscle to employ the best brains for Mamanda nor my team is perfect. We make mistakes along the way. All of our information is taken from NHB. It is never our intention to misrepresent any information.

Again we reiterate that please do not abuse your position as an MP to discredit us or bring Mamanda down.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely
