Dear Madam Faizah Jamal

Thank you for your email. But there were still question left unanswered.

It was a simple flyer to generate visitorship to Mamanda and to create awareness to Kampung Glam. Simple and direct to the point. It is not a history lesson flyer. If we were to follow your instructions and tell the whole truth then it is only right we need to include all these important people whom have added colours to the place such as Annamalay Chitty, Mootiah Chitty, Choo Sow San, Oei Tjong Swan, Ho Kien Hwa Neo and Tepak Sireh in the flyer. This is a complete list so far that we know. Does it make sense to include these owners and tenants whom have stayed in Gedung Kuning? Maybe it sould not be a flyer but a PDF file or a newsletter. Why didn't you cc to all the children and great grand children of these owners and even Mr Akbar, the owner of Tepak Sireh whom we believe stayed longer than some of the people mention above.

Your action of putting them in the loop in your first email suggesting that you are defending and agreeing with an individual. It has also come to our attention (correct us if we are wrong) that you have blood ties and related to them.

The use of power is further exercises, when you signed off as an NMP. We believe and it was proven, with that email, it was use to garner support to discredit Mamanda. As a member of public, we again believe that you have abuse your power to direct us to do certain things. You have not exercise your due diligence to check with us first, before coming to your own conclusion.

As a member of public, we felt that we were abuse and unfairly treated by our MP. With that we are excising our rights as a member of public to lodged a formal complain of Power Abuse to the Parliament.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely
